DETAILED ACTION

1. The Amendment filed by Applicant on 12/29/05 has been entered.

Response to Amendment/Arguments

2. Applicant's amendment and arguments filed on 12/29/05 have been fully considered and they are found unpersuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

4. The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

5. Claims 1-49 and 58-70 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mehta et al., U.S. Patent No. 6,583,227 (hereinafter "Mehta"). Mehta teaches a crystalline propylene polymer composition wherein the polymer is prepared from two different metallocene catalysts. See Mehta, Abstract; cols. 4-11 and 15-17. Based on the similarity of processes for preparing the crystalline propylene polymer compositions found in Mehta and the processes of the claim invention, the Examiner contends that broad, bimodal molecular distribution as stated in Mehta is synonymous with unimodal distribution found in the claimed invention.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

7. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action
